Greetings:

Any Homecoming is a day of pleasure at Fort Hays State but this one has all the earmarks of a special occasion since the anxiously-awaited opening of Memorial Union takes place.

We are extremely happy that all of you could be here for this Homecoming since the dedication of the Memorial Union is an important milestone in the progress of Fort Hays State College.

We hope the Homecoming activities of this weekend will engender new zeal and enthusiasm for your Alma Mater—that old friendships may be strengthened and new friendships formed. It is an inspiration to those of us on the campus to have you here, to know of your continued interest and to have the assurances of your friendship and support.

Again, a hearty welcome. Come again and often.

M. C. Cunningham
President

Welcome, Gorillas

by Norris "Scooter" Hale
Sports Publicity Director

It was Homecoming Day in 1954 when the Fort Hays State Tigers registered their last win over Coach Carnie Smith's Pittsburg Gorillas. Little Gene Jaco highlighted the triumph with a 48-yard scoring dash as Coach "Red" Huffman's Tigers went on to gain a share of the CIC crown.

The members of that 1954 team have returned but this time in the role of special guests for today's Homecoming festivities. Perhaps they will serve as a good omen for Coach Wayne McConnell's Tigers to extend their winning streak to four straight.

Even though the visiting Gorillas haven't won since their season's opener against Northeast Missouri State, they are a tough obstacle in the Tiger's path. It's easy to recollect that this is the same Pittsburg team that was unbeaten in ten starts last season en route to the CIC and NAIA championships.

The "Busch" Gross Award

One of the many highlights of the 1958 Homecoming is the annual presentation of the "Busch" Gross Award to the outstanding senior athlete from the 1957-58 school year. The presentation of the plaque will take place prior to the opening kickoff of today's game between Fort Hays State and Pittsburg State.

The recipient of the award is selected by a committee on the basis of leadership, scholarship, citizenship, and ability.

The award is named for the school's athletic director, Paul "Busch" Gross who has been on the faculty at Fort Hays State for 28 years. "Busch" starred on the college's championship football teams of 1917, 1919, 1920, and 1921. He returned to his alma mater in 1930 as head basketball coach and he has been Director of Athletics since 1935.

The completion of the Fort Hays State Memorial Union is a dream coming true for the many individuals who have been concerned with its planning and construction. The $800,000 structure will certainly prove to be an important asset to the rapidly-growing Tiger campus.

Located on the main floor of the Memorial Union are Cody Cafeteria, Astra Dining Room, Corral Snack Bar, Cavalry Card Room, Game Room, Meadowlark Room, Sunset Lounge and Terrace.

The second floor will be the scene of many meetings and social activities as it includes such enclosures as the Prairie Room, Homestead Room, Santa Fe and Smoky Hill Trail Room, and the Black and Gold Ballroom.

MEMORIAL UNION

Sunset Lounge, located on the main floor and equipped with television and comfortable furniture, will definitely be a popular spot in the new Memorial Union.

DEDICATION

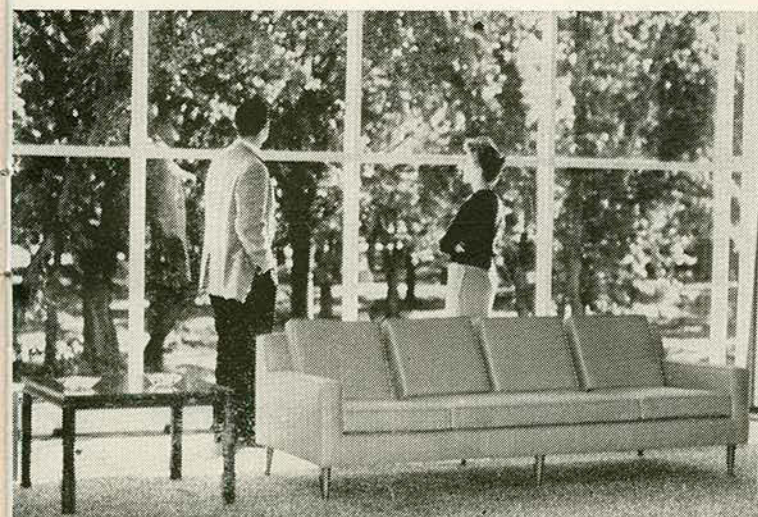

by Helen D. Francis

This building is dedicated to the unfulfilled dreams of our young men who gave their lives in defense of freedom.

We can only speculate what contribution they might have made to the world's culture if war had not intervened—what honor they might have brought, as creative adults, to their families, their home communities, their college.

Instead, they fought bravely in wars not of their own making. They died in strange and distant lands where the rippling sheen of a Kansas wheat field was but a golden memory.

The Memorial Union is dedicated today as a practical but permanent monument to the sacrifice these men have made.

Memorial Union Director Burnie Horton, and Secretary Ramona Miller admire the campus view from the spacious Black and Gold Room.

At the main floor reception desk is cashier Josephine Riedel with student Larry Cromwell.
